A VERY WARM WELCOME TO OUR NEW AUTUMN/WINTER 2026 EVERYDAY BROCHURE

Greeting cards remain one of the nation's favourite ways to celebrate togetherness and in an ever changing world, it's more important than ever to stay in touch with loved ones and to remind special friends just how much they mean to us.

Our Autumn / Winter brochures are special to us, not only because we feature all our new Everyday collections, but because we also feature all our Spring Season cards for the year ahead. So, please just flip over the brochure to reveal all things Spring Season for 2027.

Our new Everyday release is packed with over 140 new designs, covering cards, wrap, gifts and stationery. We are launching new card collections including Sunpatch Cats, Songbird by Kate Heiss, Herdy and Little Wonders. We are also proud to have teamed up with Dementia UK to launch 4 beautiful 'Thinking of You' cards, where a contribution from the sale of each card goes to the charity. Also featured in this edition are over 50 brand new Occasion and Relation cards.

We have gorgeous new wraps and gift bags including Garden Fayre, Midnight Bloom and Happy Things. And then there's our new stationery additions, including A5 vegan leather notebooks, Bookmarks, Magnetic List Pads and we've extended our Playing Cards collection too.

I am proud to head up The Art File brand and we look forward to working with you during the second half of the year to add real value and that all-important point of difference to your card, wrap, gift and stationery business.

INTRODUCING WHAT'S NEW FOR AW26

Certified

Corporation

WE ARE A CERTIFIED B-CORPORATION™

We are thrilled beyond measure to announce that we are now a Certified B Corporation™! Over the past two years, we've been working hard behind the scenes to pass the B Lab assessment and join a community of 2700 other UK B Corp™ companies.

Becoming B Corp™ is a huge milestone for us, and we've found the process has enriched every area of our business. B Corp™ is not just a certification; it's a movement and a promise from businesses to always try to do their best. We're incredibly grateful to count ourselves among the B Corp™ community now, and we're excited to see what the future brings.

Ged Mace, Managing Director, said: "As we grow as a company, we're always looking at ways of how we can improve everything we do. B Corp™ seemed the ideal opportunity for The Art File to review how we nurture our team, how we look after our customers, the closeness of our relationships with our supply chain, the nature of what we produce and its impact on our community and our sustainability. It's been an extraordinary journey, and we have all learned so much."

WE ARE PROUD SPONSORS OF THE RETAS AWARDS

Every year, the Retas Awards recognise the hard work of retailers around the UK. It is the only awards that celebrate greeting card retailing in the UK, and we have been proud sponsors and supporters for many years. This year, we were thrilled to add some magic to the Retas Awards by designing a mystical ticket. Our head designer, Lucie, created a special design just for the Retas, based on the bestselling Storybook collection. The Retas Awards are held on the 2nd of July this year, and we wish every retailer the best of luck and a big congratulations to the winners!

INTRODUCING THREE BRAND NEW LICENSED COLLECTIONS

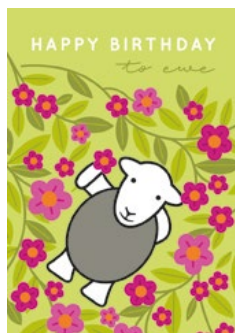

For our Autumn/Winter 2026 releases, we are thrilled to reveal three brand-new licensed collections - Sunpatch Cats, Songbird and Herdy.

Sunpatch Cats is the perfect card collection for cat lovers everywhere. This quirky series of cards is full of fun, tea and cats. This collection has been created by Sydney-based artist Susie Esse, who loves cats, swimming and hula hoops.

Songbird is a beautiful series of cards created by talented designer Kate Heiss. Creator of the bestselling Nature Trail card collection, this new series of cards features beautiful birds in their habitats. Kate is a printmaker and designer with a deep love of the natural world, which often inspires her work.

The Herdy birthday card collection is a collaboration with the fabulous Herdy brand. Featuring Herdy and Sheppy on their adventures in nature, every card in this collection is full of colour and fun. Herdy is a lovable character brand born in the heart of the Lake District, inspired by the adorable Herdwick sheep that roam the countryside.

This card is printed with Kelp® biomass ink, made from 100% renewable algae waste.

Algae is one of Earth's most abundant and efficient natural resources, capturing carbon while producing significant amounts of oxygen.
Grown for uses like wastewater treatment and dietary supplements, these algae would otherwise end up in landfill.

Instead, the algae biomass is transformed into Kelp® Black a rich, carbon-negative pigment.

FOX UNDER THE MOON

We've been absolutely delighted to partner with award-winning author and illustrator Stacey McNeill to create this stunning series of cards. Featuring her iconic natural scenes and thoughtful messages, this collection is sure to be a huge hit with customers everywhere. Every design is finished with debossed lines, silver foil and comes with a kraft envelope.

FX39

"It's hard to find my way through the night," said the fox. "Sometimes we have to trust ourselves to walk through darkness," replied the moon, "before we are able to see the light."

FX38

"Trust in the timing of life..." whispered the moon. "We often find the most wonderful things in the places we least expect them, and at the times we need them most."

FX37

"The stars are there to show us," said the moon, "that there is hope... even in darkness."

FX36

"What is magic?" asked the fox. "Sharing a moment with another who understands your soul," replied the moon. "When you feel it... you'll know."

FX35

"It hurts so much to miss someone," said the fox. "Remember," replied the moon, "distance means so little when you love someone so much."

FX34

"How long does love last?" asked the fox. "Longer than a lifetime," replied the moon, "and for some it never fades."

FX33

You're stronger than you realise, you've come so very far - so when your world's in darkness, make sure you look for stars."

FX32

"I promise I'll never forget you," said the fox. "We've shared too many happy times to forget," replied the moon. "I'll keep them in my heart forever," said the fox. "That way we'll always be together," replied the moon."

FX31

"Being together," said the moon, "is all that really matters."

FX30

"Keep going," said the moon, "for even the longest journeys start with one first step."

FX29

"How do I know a true friend?" asked the fox. "Wait for darkness," replied the moon, "and see which stars still shine."

FX28

"There is a sort of magic that happens when you start to believe in yourself," said the moon, "all of a sudden, things fall right into place."

FX27

"What does love feel like?" asked the fox.
"Home," replied the moon.

FX26

"It's all going to be ok," said the moon,
"...but until it is, it's ok not to be ok sometimes too."

FX25

Look back and see how far you've come, The mountains you have climbed - you'll get there when you're meant to, one step at a time.

FX24

"Sometimes I worry that others won't love me," said the fox.
"Do you love yourself?" replied the moon, "because that's an important place to start."

FX23

"Does it matter who you love?" asked fox.
"Not one bit," replied the moon
"Love is love...
...and that's the only thing that matters."

FX22

"Little changes add up," said the moon,
"So be proud of yourself for every step...
...no matter how small it may seem."

FX21

"What is grief?" fox pondered, and the moon replied, "my friend... grief is what our love becomes, when life comes to an end." The moon was wise and gentle, and whispered from above: "The weight of loss we carry is the price we pay for love."

FX20

You may feel overwhelmed and like you can't see your way through but know that you're enough, and loved for simply being you.

FX19

"Can I ask you something?" rabbit asked the moon above. "Where does all the love go, when you lose someone you love?" The moon replied to rabbit, "Even when you are apart, love can never disappears, it stays there in your heart."

FX18

"Friends make the world that little bit more wonderful just by being in it, don't they?" Said the fox.

FX17

"How can I make a difference?" asked the fox. "Be kind to others," replied the moon, "for even the smallest acts of kindness make the world a better place".

FX16

"What is life about?" asked the fox. "The privilege of getting to love," replied the moon, "and being loved in return... in the end that's all that matters."

FX12

We only have a little time
Before we'll be apart -
But know that wherever you go
I'll be there in your heart

FX11

One day I will be starlight,
and you will still be here -
But even on the longest nights,
I will keep you near

FX10

Just like the stars up in the sky sparkling in the night -
No matter how dark it may get
Love will shine a light

FX09

However far you travel,
Old friend, there'll always be -
A part of me inside your heart, forever yours to keep

FX08

When there's darkness all around you,
And the stars don't seem that bright,
know that shining deep within is your own kind of light

FX07

When you're lost at sea
In a small and fragile boat -
I'll be with you all the way,
To help you stay afloat

FX06

Sometimes something magical is all you need to see,
to know that there is hope in life and reasons to believe

FX05

The world is full of beauty
when you take the time to see,
and it's made even lovelier
when you're here next to me

FX04

When your world's in darkness
And you can't see your way through,
know that there's a star above,
shining just for you

FX03

"Enjoy the little moments, be grateful for each day" The moon smiled down and whispered - "It's going to be ok"

FX02

Quietly in the darkest nights,
the moon and stars we'll share,
for real friends know what matters most, is simply being there.

FX01

If I could wish upon a star,
I'd ask to touch the moon,
for up there in the sky is where
I could be with you

PATTERN FLAT WRAP

Exclusive Gift Wrap printed with Kelp® biomass ink, made from 100% renewable algae waste. Algae is one of Earth's most abundant and efficient natural resources, capturing carbon while producing significant amounts of oxygen. Grown for uses like wastewater treatment and dietary supplements, these algae would otherwise end up in landfill. Instead, it's transformed into Kelp® Black a rich, carbon-negative pigment.
